Legendary photographers demand legendary reliability.

For more than four decades, Douglas Kirkland has photographed everyone from Marilyn Monroe to Angelina Jolie. When he shoots digitally, Douglas counts on Kingston's high-performance Flash cards. Try them yourself and you'll see why Kingston cards are the choice of photographers, advanced amateurs and professionals worldwide.

Kingston's CompactFlash® and Secure Digital Ultimate cards offer an impressive sustained write speed rating up to 133x or 100x and plenty of room to capture and store high volumes of images. Their fast transfer and support for continuous shooting make them ideal for the most challenging photoshoot.

For day-to-day assignments, choose Kingston's CompactFlash or Secure Digital Elite Pro, rated at up to 50x performance, or our best value standard CompactFlash cards. Like the Ultimate, they feature legendary Kingston® reliability and a lifetime warranty. For more information and the latest capacities, visit kingston.com/digitalmedia today.
